Your baggage

If your boarding pass does not show your baggage allowance, please visit My Trip on klm.com. Does your journey include a flight with a different airline? Your boarding pass or My Trip may not show extra baggage purchased for other airline flights. Please visit other airlines' websites to learn more about their baggage rules.

If your flight is full, we might ask you to check your hand baggage for free, even if it meets our requirements. You can still bring a small bag with you on board. If you are flying with KLM or Air France, please check your exact baggage allowance in My Trip. For other airlines, visit their website to find their rules.

Please check any gate changes in the KLM app, on klm.com, or on the airport information screens.
